

Filosofia e diritto penale in Cesare Beccaria. Intervista a Philippe Audegean

DARIO IPPOLITO

Philosophy and Criminal Law in Cesare Beccaria. Interview with Philippe Audegean

Abstract: Philippe Audegean answers questions from Dario Ippolito about Beccaria's criminal law doctrine. Starting from the problem of the unity of the work of the great Italian Enlightenment writer and the political meaning of his critical philosophy, the interview was conducted highlighting the central thesis of the 1764 masterpiece: On Crimes and Punishments.

Keywords: Beccaria, Right to punish, Civil liberty, Death penalty, Intent of punishments.

notizie di POLITEIA, XXX, 116, 2014, ISSN 1128-2401, pp. 53-61