Liberalism and Freedom of Expression

Abstract: Ansuátegui Roig's book Libertà d'espressione: ragione e storia highlights how, from the beginning, liberalism has been marked by strong contradictions, precisely with reference to its cornerstone as the guarantee of freedom of expression: but with all its contradictions, it represents an indispensable legacy also to face the challenges brought, in this field, by technological innovation and the radical transformations of public opinion.

Keywords: Liberalism, Freedom of expression, Freedom of the press.
