

Circolarità, incoerenza e valore intrinseco. Una risposta in conclusione

SERGIO FILIPPO MAGNI

Circularity, Incoherence, and Intrinsic Value. A Final Answer

Abstract: This article is the last answer to Pontara's third reply on future generation ethics. It defends person-affecting consequentialism from Pontara's critiques of circularity and incoherence and tries to explain the ambiguity of 'intrinsic value' and the transitivity of the comparative relation 'as good as'.

Keywords: Consequentialism, Circularity, Intrinsic value, Transitivity, Repugnant conclusion.
