Solid Roots and Indelible Memories

Abstract: Describing the correspondence between Norberto Bobbio and Gregorio Peces-Barba, the author illustrates the cultural atmosphere in which the relations between their respective schools of thought have evolved for decades, a process that continued with their younger exponents. He then underscores how the two scholars influenced each other reciprocally, both academically and in their political choices, and how the book paints vivid portraits of their personalities.

Keywords: Norberto Bobbio, Gregorio Peces-Barba, Democracy, Socialism.
