

Silvio de Girolamo

Silvio de Girolamo has 20 years of experience in the field of Internal Auditing and Corporate Governance.

Currently he is Chief Audit Executive & CSR Autogrill Group, a leading company in the food & beverage and retail services for travellers.

Prior to this he worked in a wide variety of multinational organisations, including the Italian oil company ENI S.p.A. and the American company 3M Minnesota Manufacturing.

He is co-author of the book: “Enterprise Risk Management from management of controls to sustainability of the risks in the magazine of Italian Association of Certified Public Accountants.

He is also author of the article: “More protection for Stakeholders can generate more results” in the Italian newspaper.

He was speaker in various conferences:

III Finance and Administration Summit - edition 2006 – Milan; II Fraud Conference: Solutions and strategies - edition 2006 - Milan; Autogrill: C.S.R. and competition - November 2005; June 2007 – Milan; “From Corporate Governance by controls to Enterprise Risk Management inside Sustainable Framework” International Conference Institute Internal Auditors 2007 – Amsterdam; and in more conferences about the Internal Auditing, Corporate Governance, Compliance and Corporate Social Responsibility.

He is “Institute of Internal Auditors” member CAE Chief Audit Executive membership and CIA - Certified Internal Auditor designation in progress.