

Lucia Becatti

Lucia Becatti is PhD student in Planning and Control at the Faculty of Economics of Florence University and professor of Global Business and Society at the American Institute “Lorenzo de’ Medici”. She has also lectured on Planning and Control at the University of Florence.

Her dissertation project, titled “performance measurement in Social Enterprise”, focuses on measuring economic and social success of Social Enterprises.

Her research interests are in corporate social responsibility, management accounting and performance measurement, and management accounting for non profit organisations. Her publications are: L. Becatti, G. Manetti “Assurance Services for Sustainability Reports: Standards and Empirical Evidence” accepted for publication on The Journal of Business Ethics; M. Mulazzani, L. Becatti, A. Romolini, “The History of the Innocenti Hospital of Florence through a research on historical accounting documents (XIX century)” accepted for publication on Rirea.

She has also written on “the social dimension of the evaluation of Italian local government’s managers”.